Our Services

Ceremony Site Rental

Two beautiful outdoor sites are available for wedding ceremonies at the Muriel Sahlin Arboretum, accommodating 10 to 300 guests. The Arboretum grounds feature lush gardens, manicured lawns, and scenic walkways, offering a variety of stunning spots for your ceremony. The Shirlie Klaus Pavilion, perfect for up to 100 guests, is an open-walled, plant-surrounded space ideal for smaller, intimate gatherings. Both venues provide flexible options and picturesque settings to create a memorable ceremony tailored to your style.

Support Staff

On the day of your event, knowledgeable facility staff will be on-site to assist with logistics and ensure everything runs smoothly. While not wedding coordinators, these experts are well-versed in the Arboretum grounds and can help with AV hookups, load-in and load-out, and directing vendors. Their familiarity with the venue ensures that your event is set up efficiently and any technical needs are addressed promptly, allowing you to focus on enjoying your special day.

Open Vendor Policy

We offer an open vendor policy, allowing couples to choose their preferred vendors for tables, chairs, tents, and decorations. Whether you have a specific vision for your event or want to work with local professionals, we can accommodate your needs and ensure your wedding is tailored to your exact specifications. This flexibility allows you to create a personalized celebration with the vendors that best match your style and preferences.

Our Ceremony Venues

The Muriel Sahlin Arboretum offers a stunning natural setting for weddings with 8 acres of beautifully landscaped gardens and meticulously manicured grounds. The grounds are designed to provide a variety of picturesque spaces, including stone walkways, paved plazas, and lush tree and shrub collections that create a serene and intimate atmosphere. An elegant entry pergola and a central water feature add to the tranquility of the venue, providing a stunning backdrop for ceremonies and photographs. For added comfort, the temperature-controlled shelter with two private changing areas ensures that couples and their bridal parties have a quiet, convenient space for preparations before the ceremony. The Arboretum Grounds can accommodate up to 300 guests.

The Shirlie Klaus Pavilion, located on the west side of the Arboretum, offers an ideal venue for smaller, more intimate weddings. This open-walled pavilion is surrounded by vibrant plantings, allowing couples and guests to experience the beauty of nature while enjoying shelter from the elements. Designed to accommodate up to 100 guests, the pavilion offers a charming and rustic atmosphere, perfect for exchanging vows or hosting a reception. The pavilion's thoughtful design frames gatherings with natural beauty, making it a perfect choice for those seeking a more intimate celebration in a tranquil outdoor setting.

Whether you choose the expansive grounds or the cozy pavilion, the Muriel Sahlin Arboretum provides a versatile and picturesque setting for your wedding day, with various spaces to suit every couple's vision.

Nearby Reception Venues

For couples looking to continue their celebration in the Roseville area, the Roseville Parks and Recreation Department offers two excellent nearby reception venues: the Cedarholm Golf Community Building and the Banquet Center at the Skating Oval.

The Cedarholm Golf Community Building, located at the Cedarholm Golf Course, provides a bright and inviting space with panoramic views of the golf course. The Cedarholm Community Room can accommodate up to 120 guests with table seating, making it perfect for larger receptions. For more intimate gatherings, the Golf View and Green View Community Rooms each seat 50 guests at tables. Cedarholm is equipped with amenities to enhance your event, including 65" monitors for presentations, a sound system for music or speeches, a wireless microphone, and an indoor fireplace to create a cozy atmosphere. The venue also offers catering through its internal provider, Tio's Food & Beverage, to make your celebration complete.

The Banquet Center at the Skating Oval offers a larger venue for bigger receptions, with a capacity of up to 300 guests. This venue features floor-to-ceiling windows that overlook the skating oval and surrounding parkland, providing a unique and airy environment for a celebration. The banquet room is equipped with modern amenities, including a full kitchen, and is perfect for larger gatherings or more formal events. The adjacent outdoor spaces also offer opportunities for beautiful outdoor photos, adding to the venue's charm.

Both venues are conveniently located within Roseville's parks and recreation system, providing beautiful, accessible options for couples planning their wedding and reception in this scenic area.
