In order for a game to be officially forfeited, the appearing team must have eight players present (unless they are notified by the other team or league director prior to the game).
- b. If neither team has enough players to begin the game, a double forfeit will be declared.
- c. If a non-rostered player has played in a game, the game will be forfeited and the team will be put on probation – forfeiting all fees.

To legally protest a play, the manager must notify both the opposing manager and the umpire prior to the next legal pitch for a rule protest, or prior to the final out for a roster protest.
- b. Only protests involving a rule interpretation or an illegal player will be accepted. Judgment calls may not be protested.
 - i. - c. A deposit of $50 must accompany each protest (either roster or rule interpretation). If the protest is upheld, the money will be refunded, otherwise, protest fee will be donated to the Central Park Foundation. Protests will not be accepted without a $50 fee under any circumstances.

- f. Refusing to leave the premises after an ejection or confronting an official after an ejection (including on the field, leaving the field or in the parking lot) will result in a significantly increased punishment, up to expulsion from the league.
- g. If a player is ejected twice in one season, they will be suspended from the league for the remainder of the season. Umpires will record ejected players names and team name on the back of scorecard and submit an ejection report to the league director within 24 hours.

XVII. Game Balls

- a. Pitchers cannot exchange a ball being used in the game unless the umpire rules it necessary. The umpire has the final determination on which ball is to be used.
- b. Home teams provide a new game ball at the start of each game. If a team does not have a game ball the opposing team will automatically receive three runs. League ball is the Dudley USSSA Classic Yellow synthetic leather, core 40 on the 12" ball.
- c. Visiting team should have an old "slightly used ball" ready for play in the event that the game ball is hit out of play or otherwise made unusable.
